

Youth Against Pornography Flipbook

DANG IT!!

DINNER'S READY!

YEAH!
YEAH!

COVER ME!
COVER ME!

STUPID!!!

PICTURE 1

STORY Steven lives with his family. Here they are having lunch together. Even though his family has asked him to join them, he prefers to stay inside looking at his phone.

Discussion Questions

1. Why is Steven keeping separate from his family?
2. How do you think his family feel?
3. What do you think Steven should do?

Suggestions for Facilitator

Talk about the importance of talking together as a family and eating together.

DRIIING!!!

DRIIING!!!

YO!
STEVE!

WANNA PLAY
SOCCER TOGETHER
AFTER SCHOOL?

WOH! IS THIS REAL?

UM... SORRY...
I CAN'T THIS TIME.

PICTURE 2

STORY

Rather than playing with some of his old friends, Steve has started looking at porn on his phone with some new friends.

Discussion Questions

1. What are Steven and his friends choosing not to do?
2. Why are they doing it away from people?
3. Are they making a good choice?

Suggestions for Facilitator

Talk about the importance of playing with friends in a healthy way (e.g. playing sports to build relationships)

HEY, STEVE!
ARE YOU FREE
TOMORROW NIGHT?

I THINK I AM. WHAT ABOUT IT?

TO WATCH
A MOVIE?
WHAT TYPE OF MOVIE?

I'M IN!

PICTURE 3

STORY: After school, sometimes Steve and his friends spend time playing games and connecting with others online who are playing games too

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

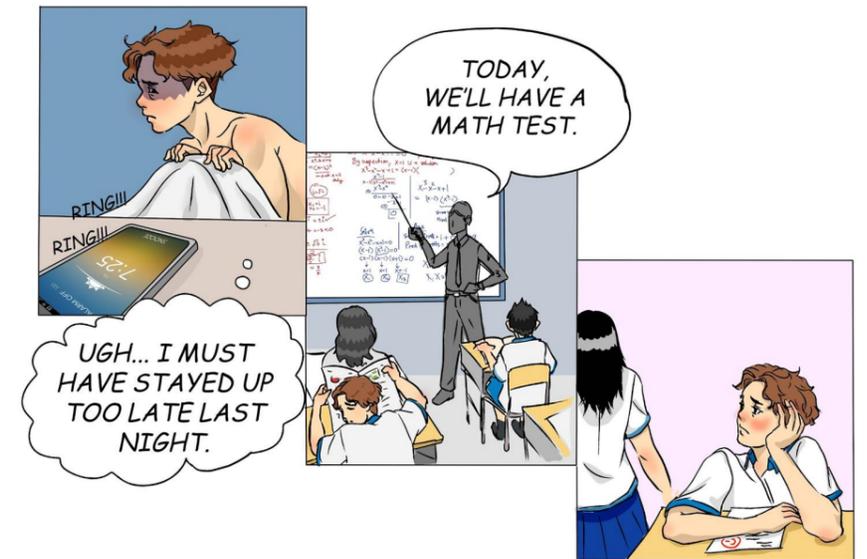

1. What do children normally watch on the internet?
2. Do you think Steve and his friends are making a good decision or not?
3. Why can gaming be dangerous?

SUGGESTIONS FOR FACILITATOR

Talk about dangers and of internet gaming
E.g. Connecting with people who are pretending to be kids but may want to harm you

PICTURE 4

STORY: Watching a lot of porn is affecting his ability to concentrate and do well at school.

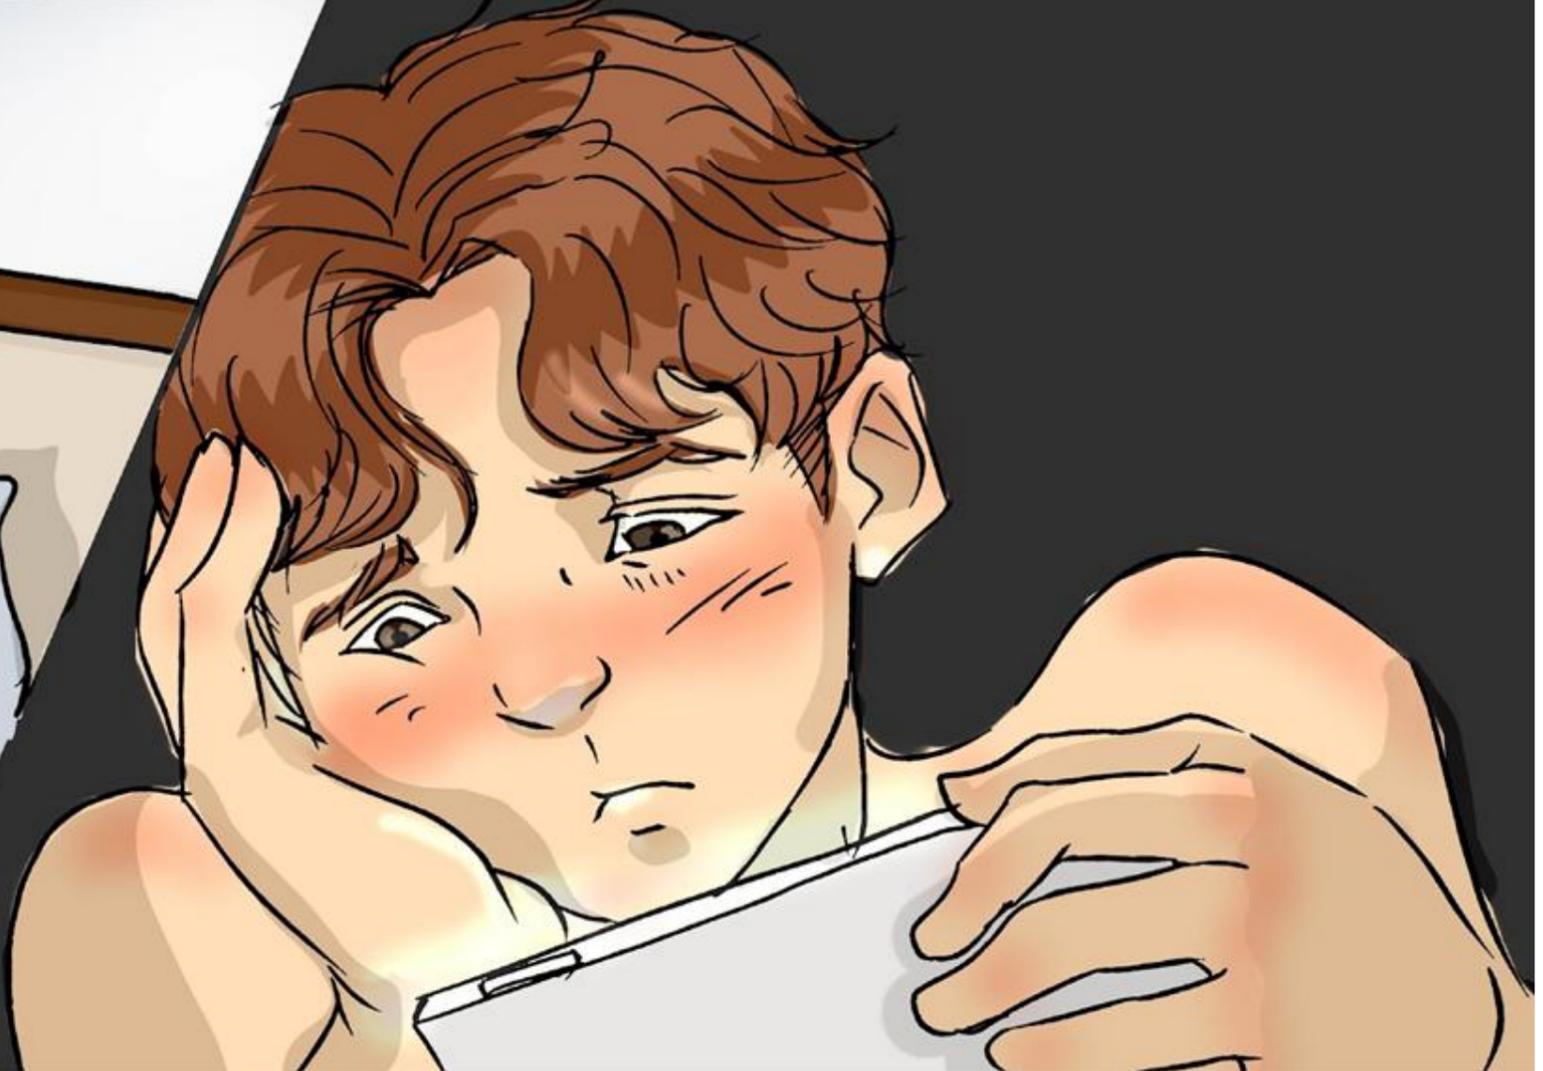

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. Why is Steve watching porn?
2. What are the consequences for Steve being distracted?
3. What might his friend be thinking about him?

SUGGESTIONS FOR FACILITATOR

Talk about reasons why children watch porn and consequences of watching porn on their study and friendship (e.g. low marks, tiredness, feelings of guilt, frustration with self and others)

PICTURE 5

STORY: Steve is very tired and sleepy but continues to stay up late watching porn.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. Why do you think Steve has low marks?
2. Why does he keep looking at porn anyway?

SUGGESTIONS FOR FACILITATOR

Talk about how constantly watching pornography that can become a bad habit to overcome.

KNOCK!
KNOCK!

STEVE!
DINNER'S
READY!

DON'T MAKE US
WAIT AGAIN!

EVERYTHING
ALRIGHT?

PICTURE 6

STORY Susan catches Steve looking at porn pictures on his phone. She is very uneasy and asks why he is looking at them. He sees that she is unhappy and he feels a little ashamed – he loves his sister and doesn't want to upset her. His brother Luke also hears the conversation and is concerned

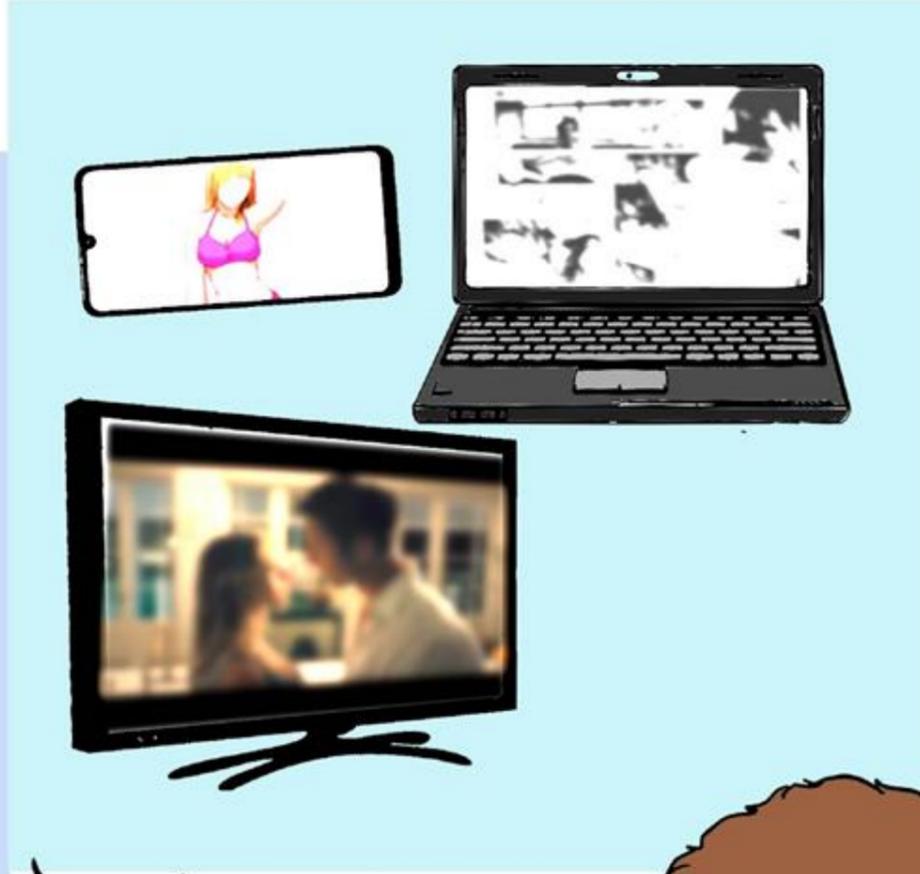

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. Why is Susan feeling uneasy and unhappy?
2. Why is Steve feeling ashamed?

SUGGESTIONS FOR FACILITATOR

Talk about the feelings of Steve, Susan and Luke and why they are feeling this way.

PICTURE 7

STORY Luke is also concerned about Steve. He explains to Steve about the dangers of often looking at porn and gaming can have on him. Steve starts to think about all of this.

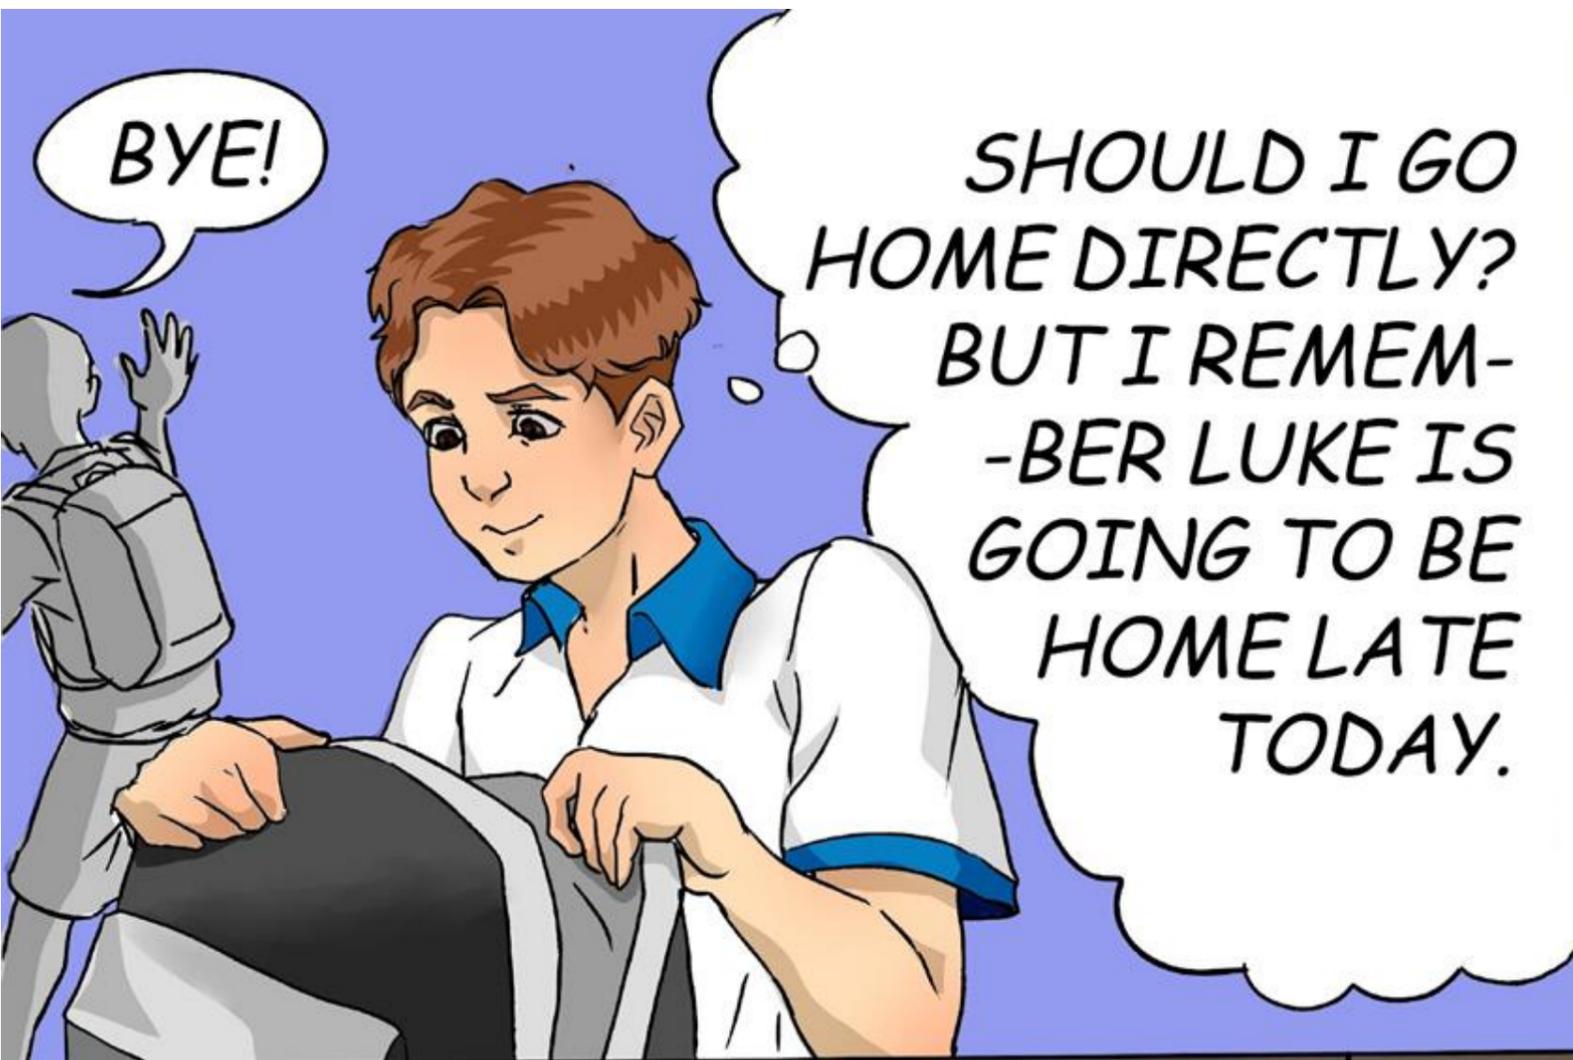

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

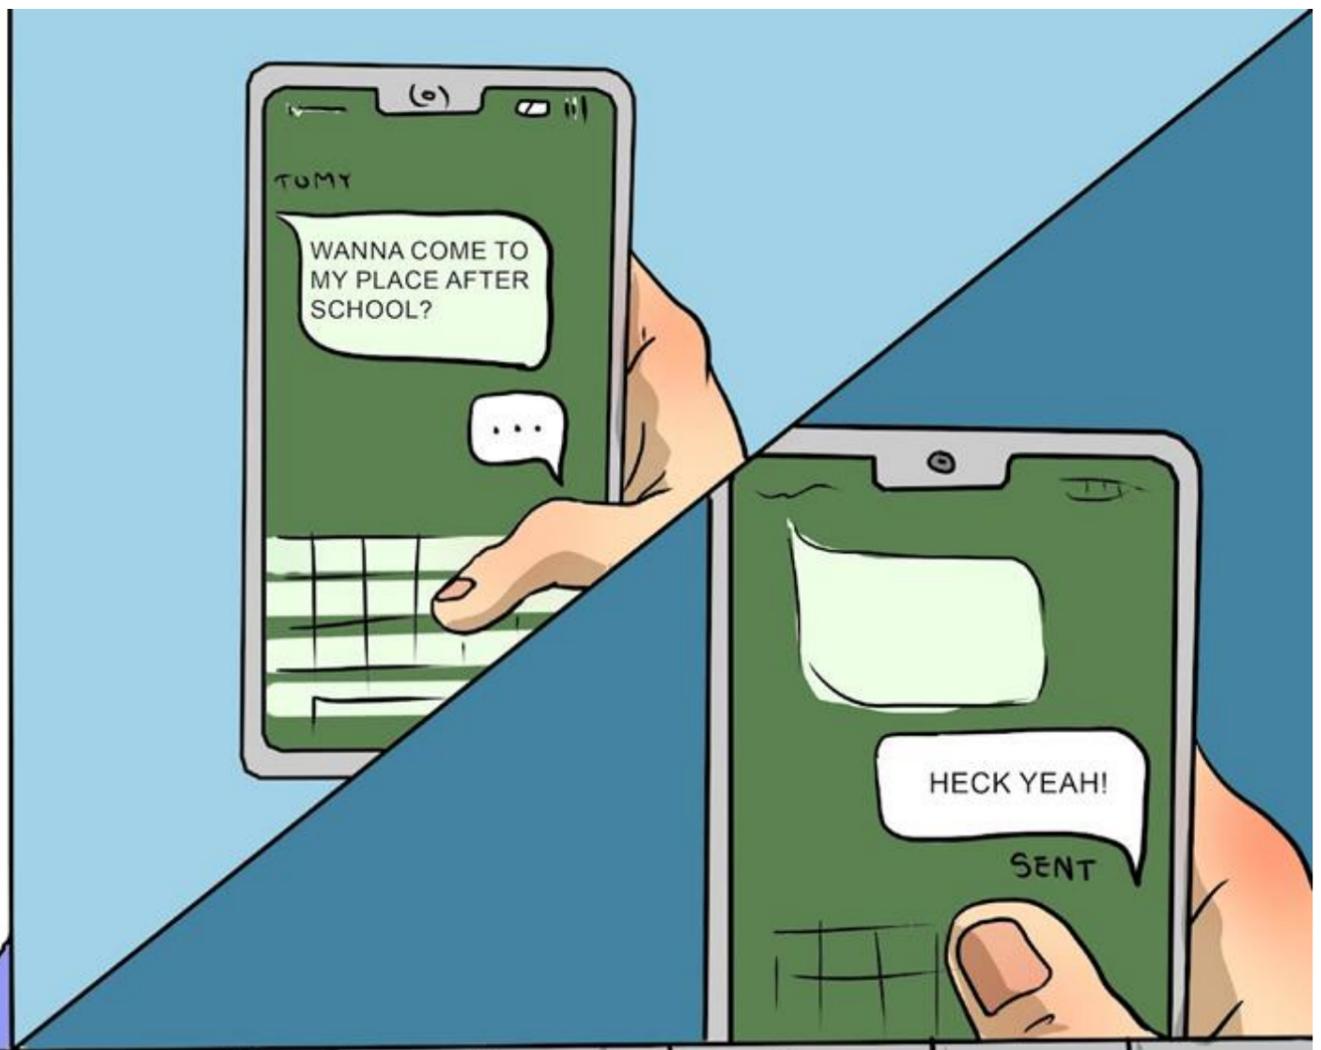

1. What are the dangers of porn and its consequences?
2. How does it make you feel about your body and other people's bodies?
3. What are the ways that children can access porn?

SUGGESTIONS FOR FACILITATOR

Talk about how badly girls and boys are displayed in porn, that can make us feel bad about ourselves and can make us think and see other people's bodies in an unhealthy way, too.

SHOULD I GO HOME DIRECTLY? BUT I REMEMBER LUKE IS GOING TO BE HOME LATE TODAY.

PICTURE 8

STORY
:

Even though Steve has heard about the dangers of porn, he still goes to his friend's house to watch porn on the internet.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

Even though Luke has talked to Steve about porn, why might it be hard for him to stop watching it?

SUGGESTIONS FOR FACILITATOR

Talk about peer pressure.
Overcoming the habit of watching porn frequently will probably take time.

DOESN'T THE BLONDE GIRL LOOK LIKE EMMA?

HAHA! YEAH!
NOW I CAN SEE IT TOO!

BUT IF YOU IGNORE
THE BLONDE HAIR
PART...

NO WAY!
SHE LOOKS EXACTLY LIKE SUSAN, YOUR SISTER!

SPEAKING OF
SUSAN SHE IS REALLY
FIT. WE SHOULD TAKE
PHOTOS AND MAKE A VIDEO OF HER!

PICTURE 9

STORY
:

As the beer takes effect the boys talk foolishly and laugh at the women in the porn films they've just watched, and start talking about girls they know. Suddenly one of them says to Steve 'Your sister is sexy. Let's take a video of her on our phone!'

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. Why do you think the boys are speaking about Steve's sister in that way?
2. Do you think porn is a good teacher of sex and why?
3. What do you think Steve will do?

SUGGESTIONS FOR FACILITATOR

Talk about respect for women and about learning about sex and relationship in a healthy way (e.g. learning from a teacher or parent)

CLANK!

HOW DARE YOU
SPEAK OF MY SISTER
LIKE THIS!!?

WHAT'S GOTTEN INTO HIM?

PICTURE 10

STORY
:

Steve is shocked and shouts angrily: 'Don't talk about my sister like that!' He grabs the remote control and throws it on the floor. There is a big argument and Steve realises that watching porn with these boys could lead to something really bad. So he runs off home feeling frustrated with his friends.

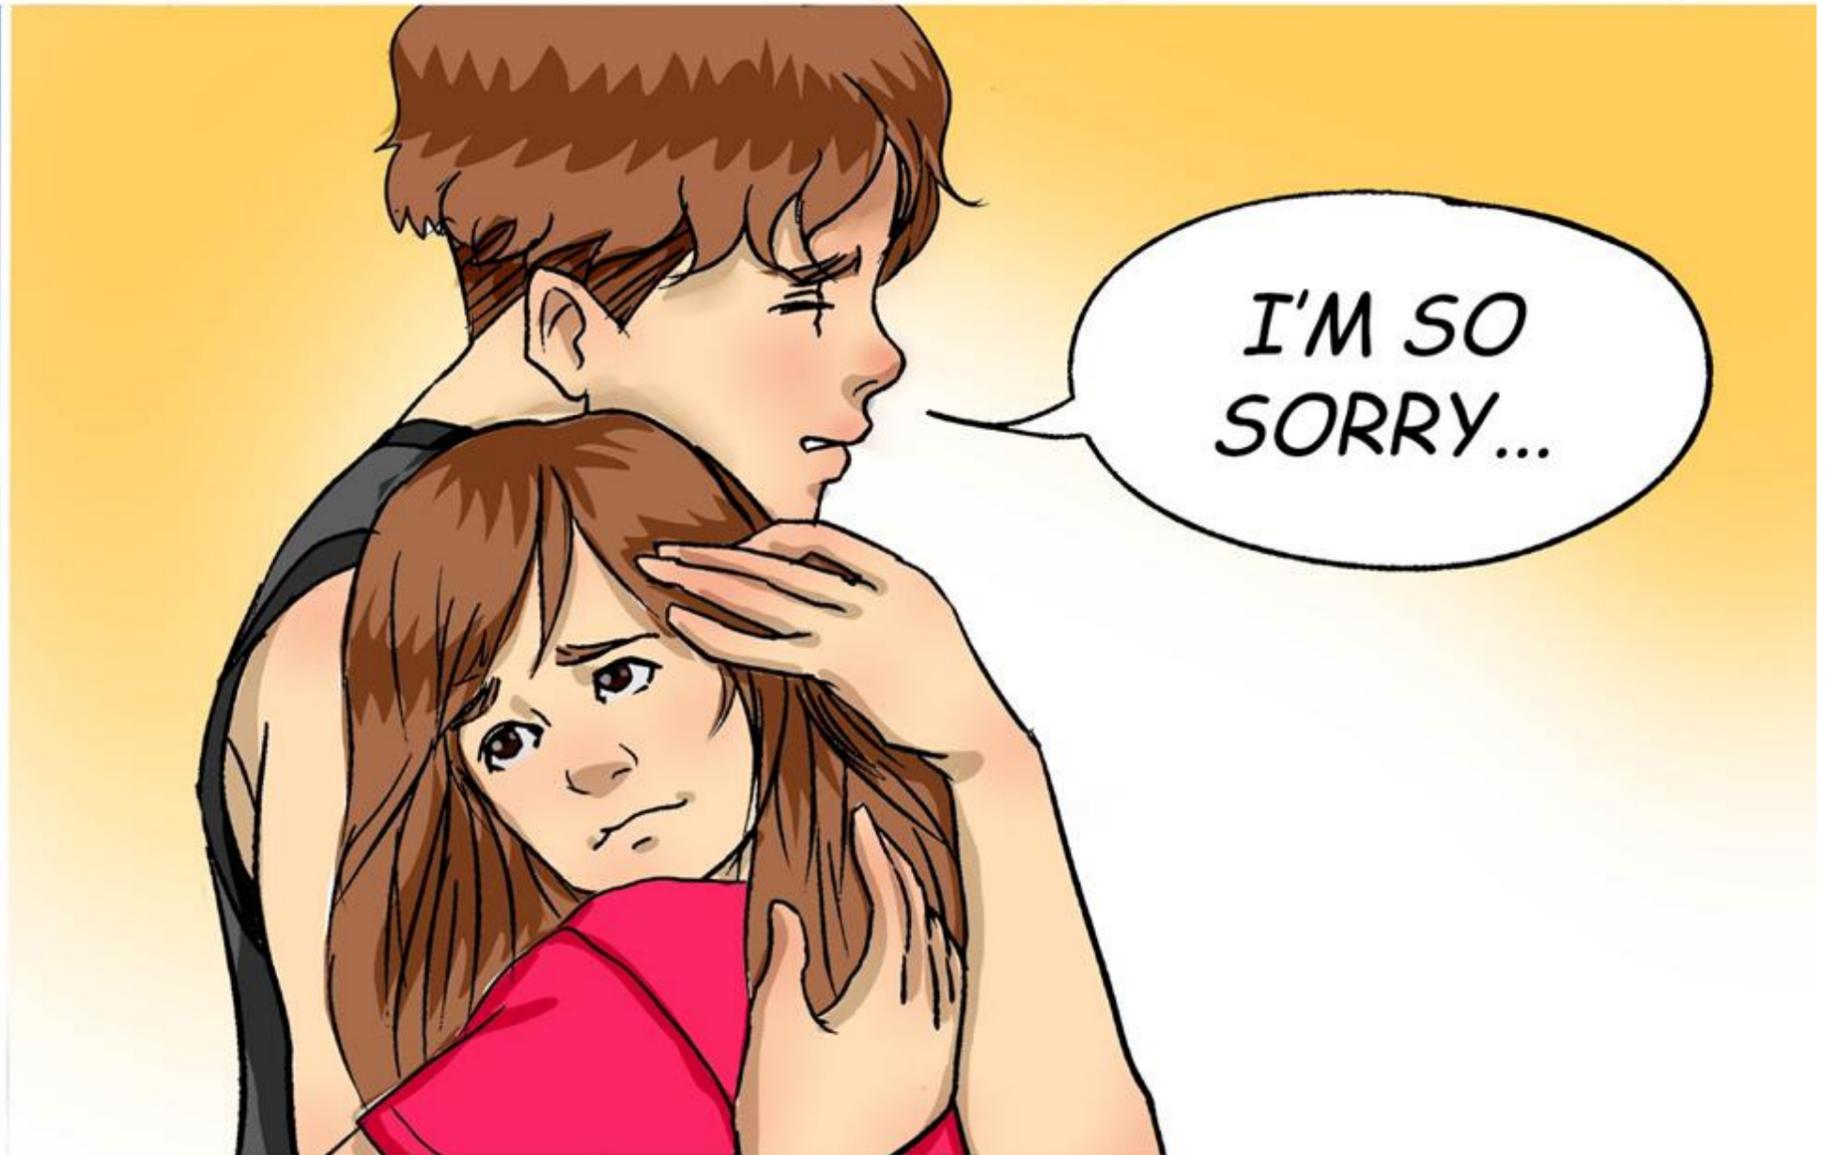

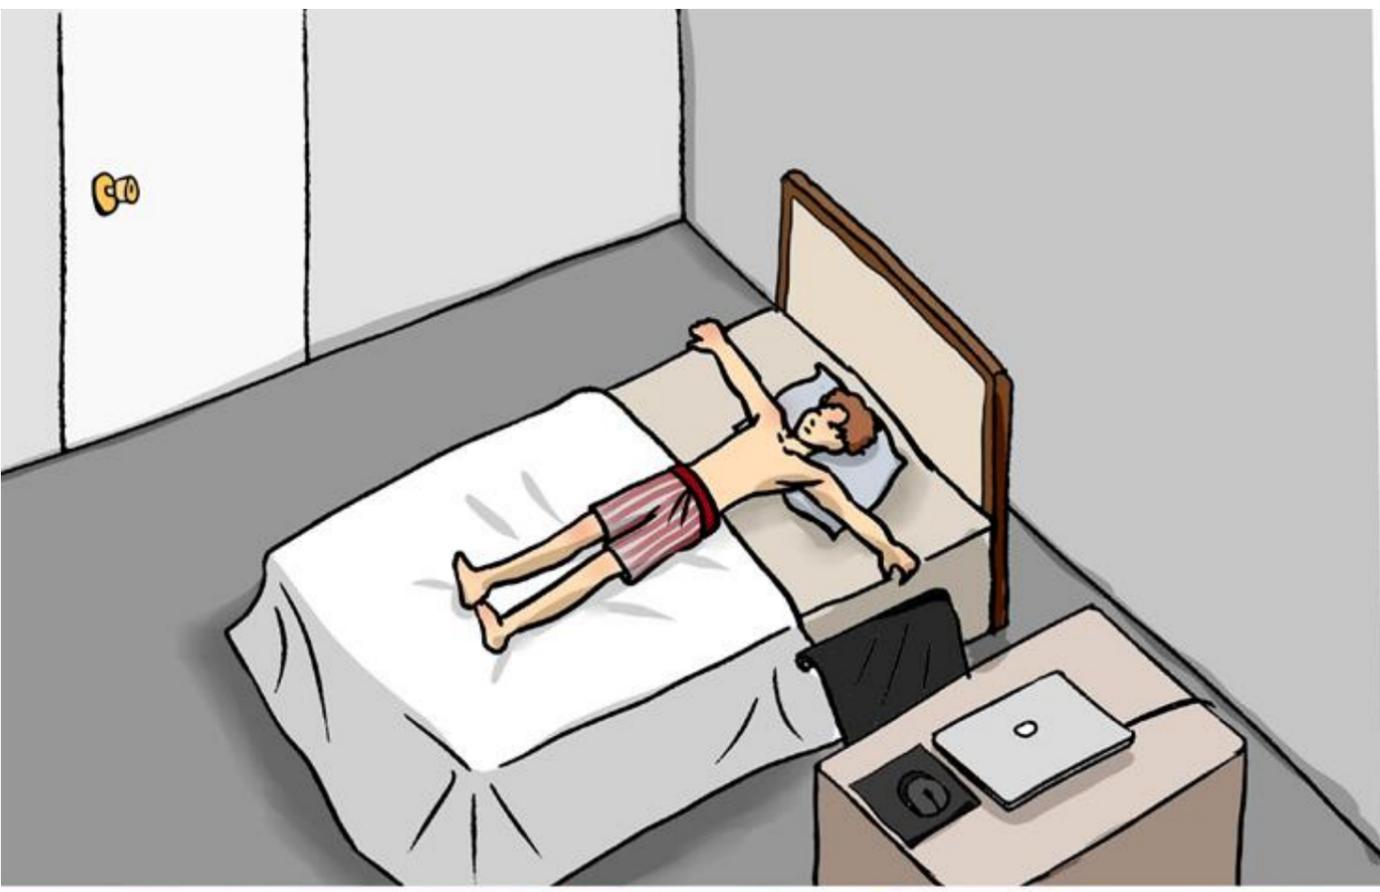

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. Why is Steve so angry?
2. What choices does he have now?

SUGGESTIONS FOR FACILITATOR

Talk about the characteristics of a good friend and a bad friend.

PICTURE 11

STORY
: The next day Steve realizes how foolish he and his friends have been and does not want to be thinking of girls in a bad way. He promises to Susan that he will try to quit looking at porn again which makes her happy.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. What encouraged Steve to quit watching porn?
2. What will help Steve keep his promise to his sister?

SUGGESTIONS FOR FACILITATOR

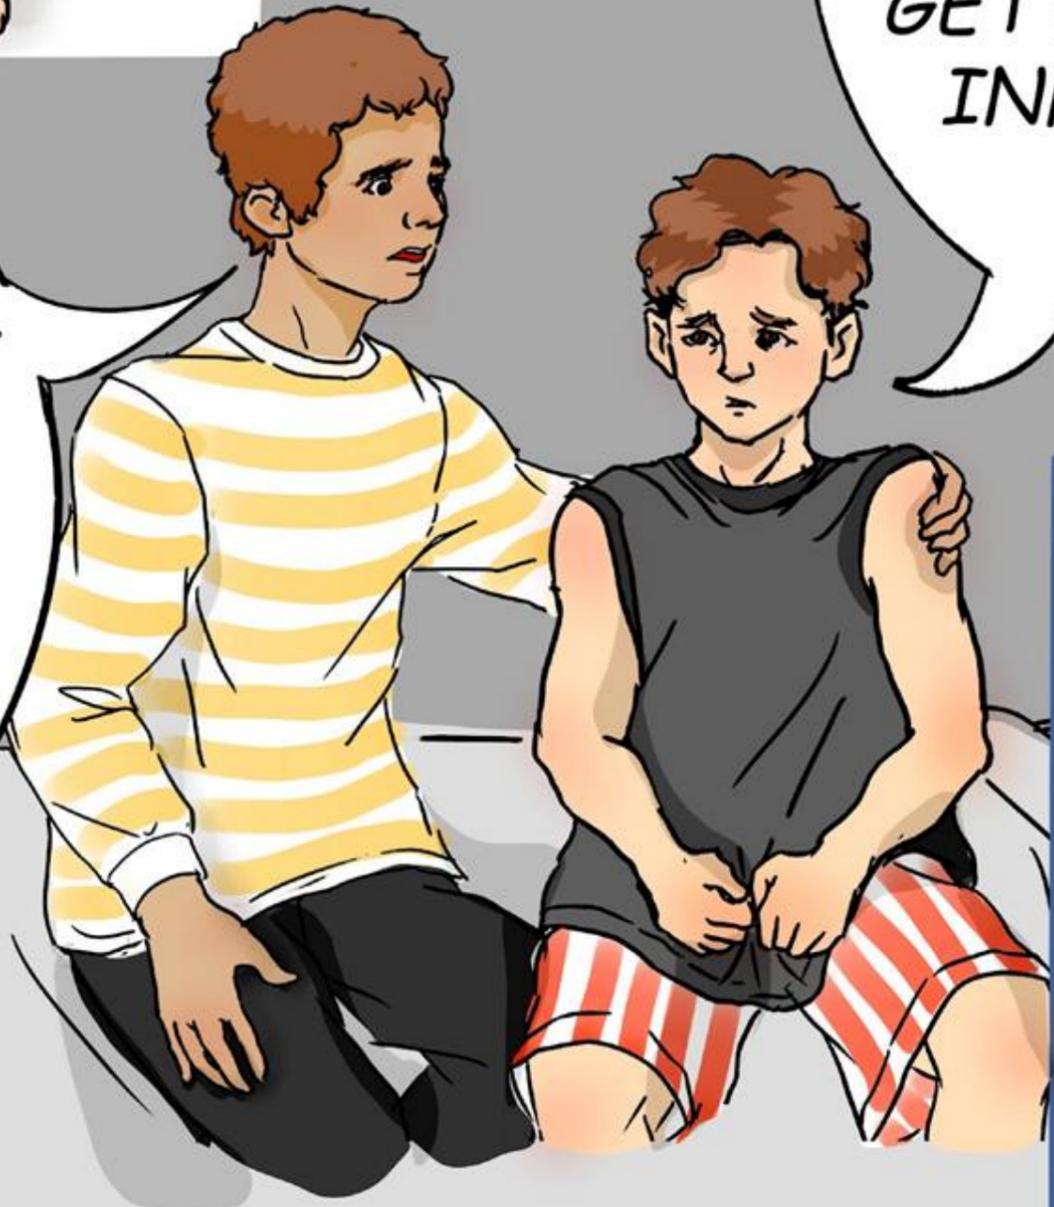

Talk about learning from mistakes, and apologising

I HAD NO IDEA HOW BAD IT WAS.

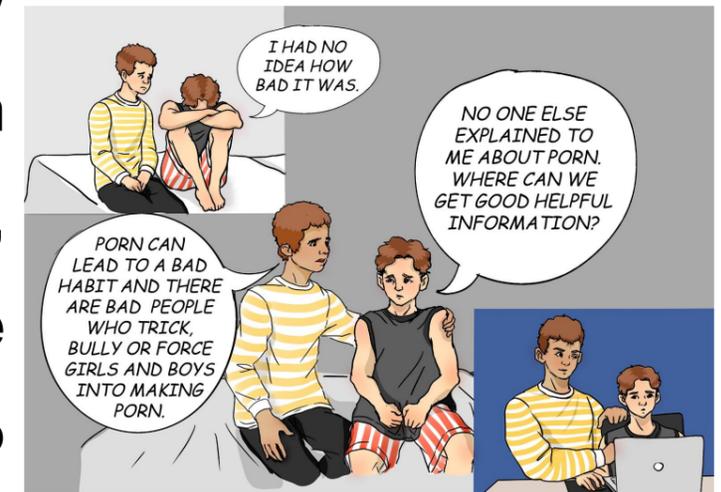

NO ONE ELSE EXPLAINED TO ME ABOUT PORN. WHERE CAN WE GET GOOD HELPFUL INFORMATION?

PORN CAN LEAD TO A BAD HABIT AND THERE ARE BAD PEOPLE WHO TRICK, BULLY OR FORCE GIRLS AND BOYS INTO MAKING PORN.

PICTURE 12

STORY Steve tells his brother what has happened and how shocked he was. Luke then explains to him how porn can lead to a bad habit and there are bad people who trick, bully or force girls and boys into making porn. Steve believes Luke and says, 'No one else has explained to me about porn or sex – maybe we could check the internet for help?'

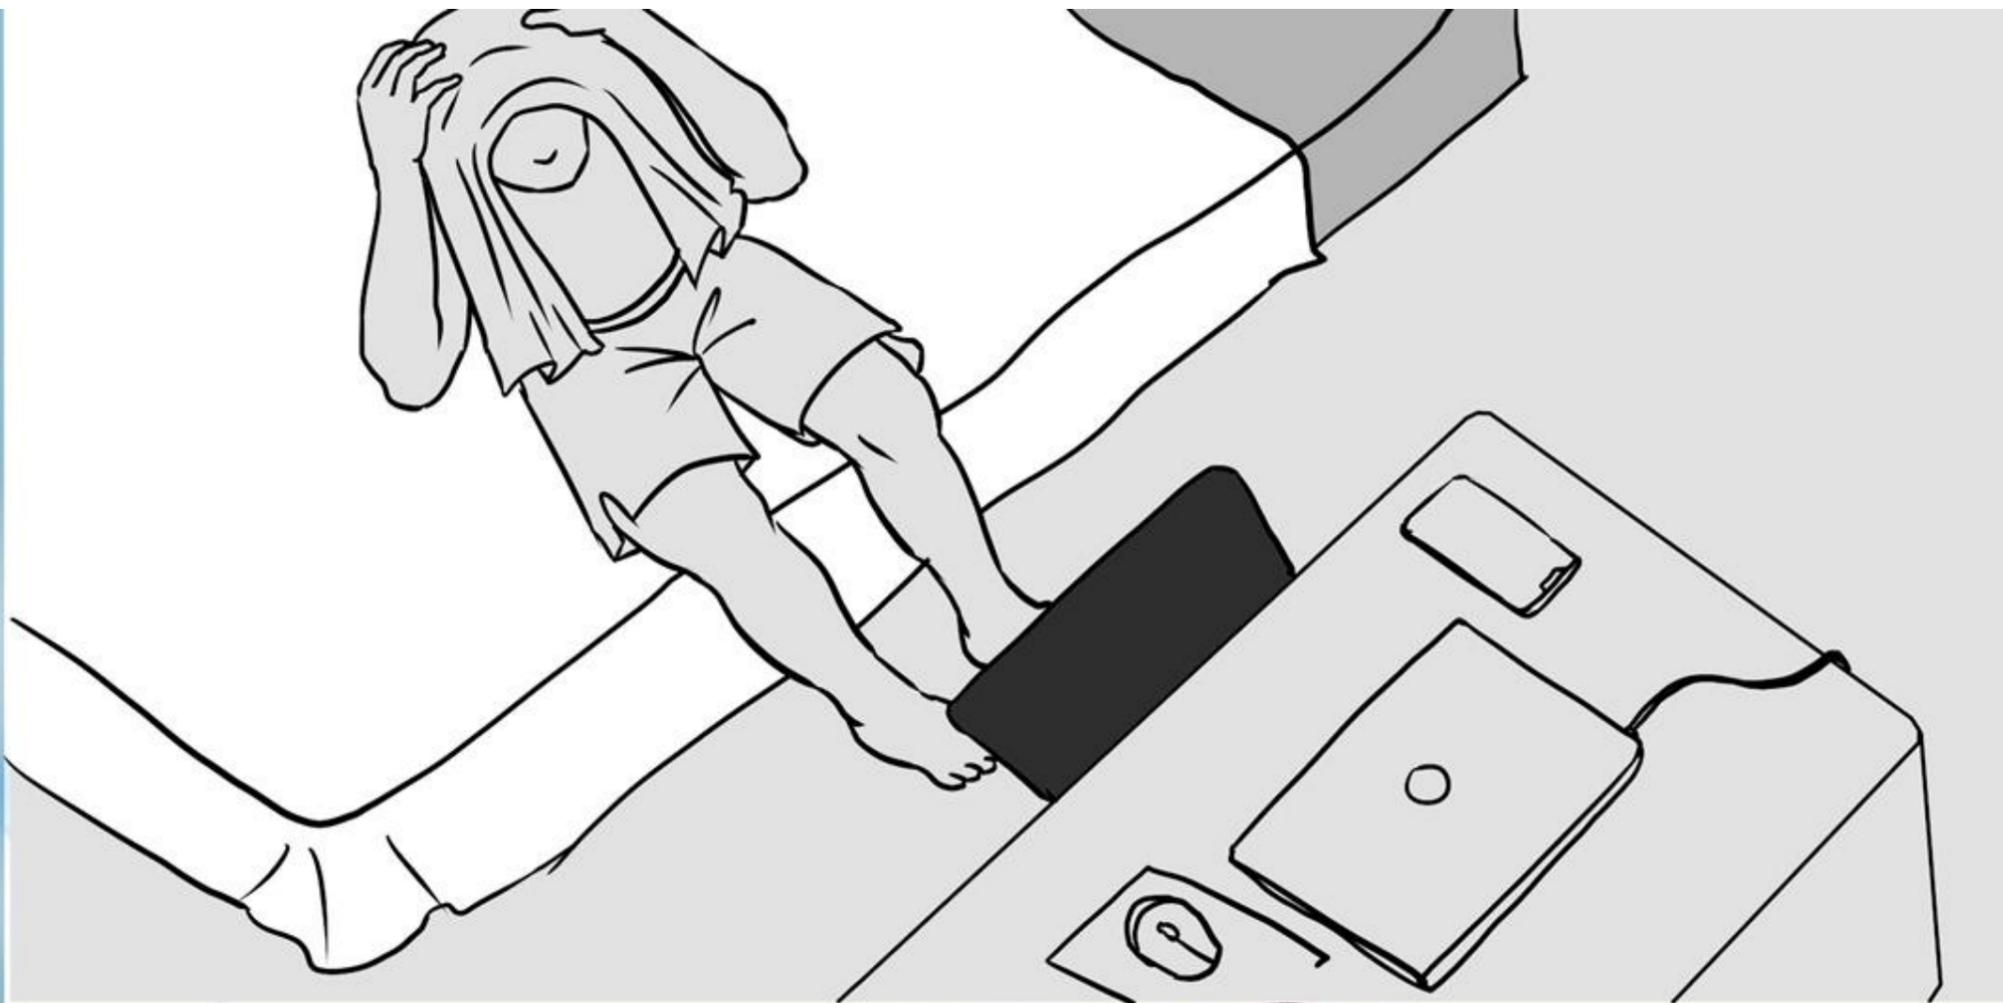

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. What factors motivate Steve to not watch porn?
2. Who are some other people that Steve can speak with to help motivate him to not watch porn?

SUGGESTIONS FOR FACILITATOR

Talk about encouraging friends who are struggling and about being committed to helping each other.

IT'S ALREADY LATE.
EVERYONE SHOULD BE SLEEPING NOW. I GUESS I AM FREE TO
DO ANYTHING AND NO
ONE WOULD KNOW.

PICTURE 13

STORY Steve has just finished showering and is getting ready for bed. He sees his phone and realizes that now he is alone, he could watch porn and no one would know. But he also wants to stop watching porn and be free of it.

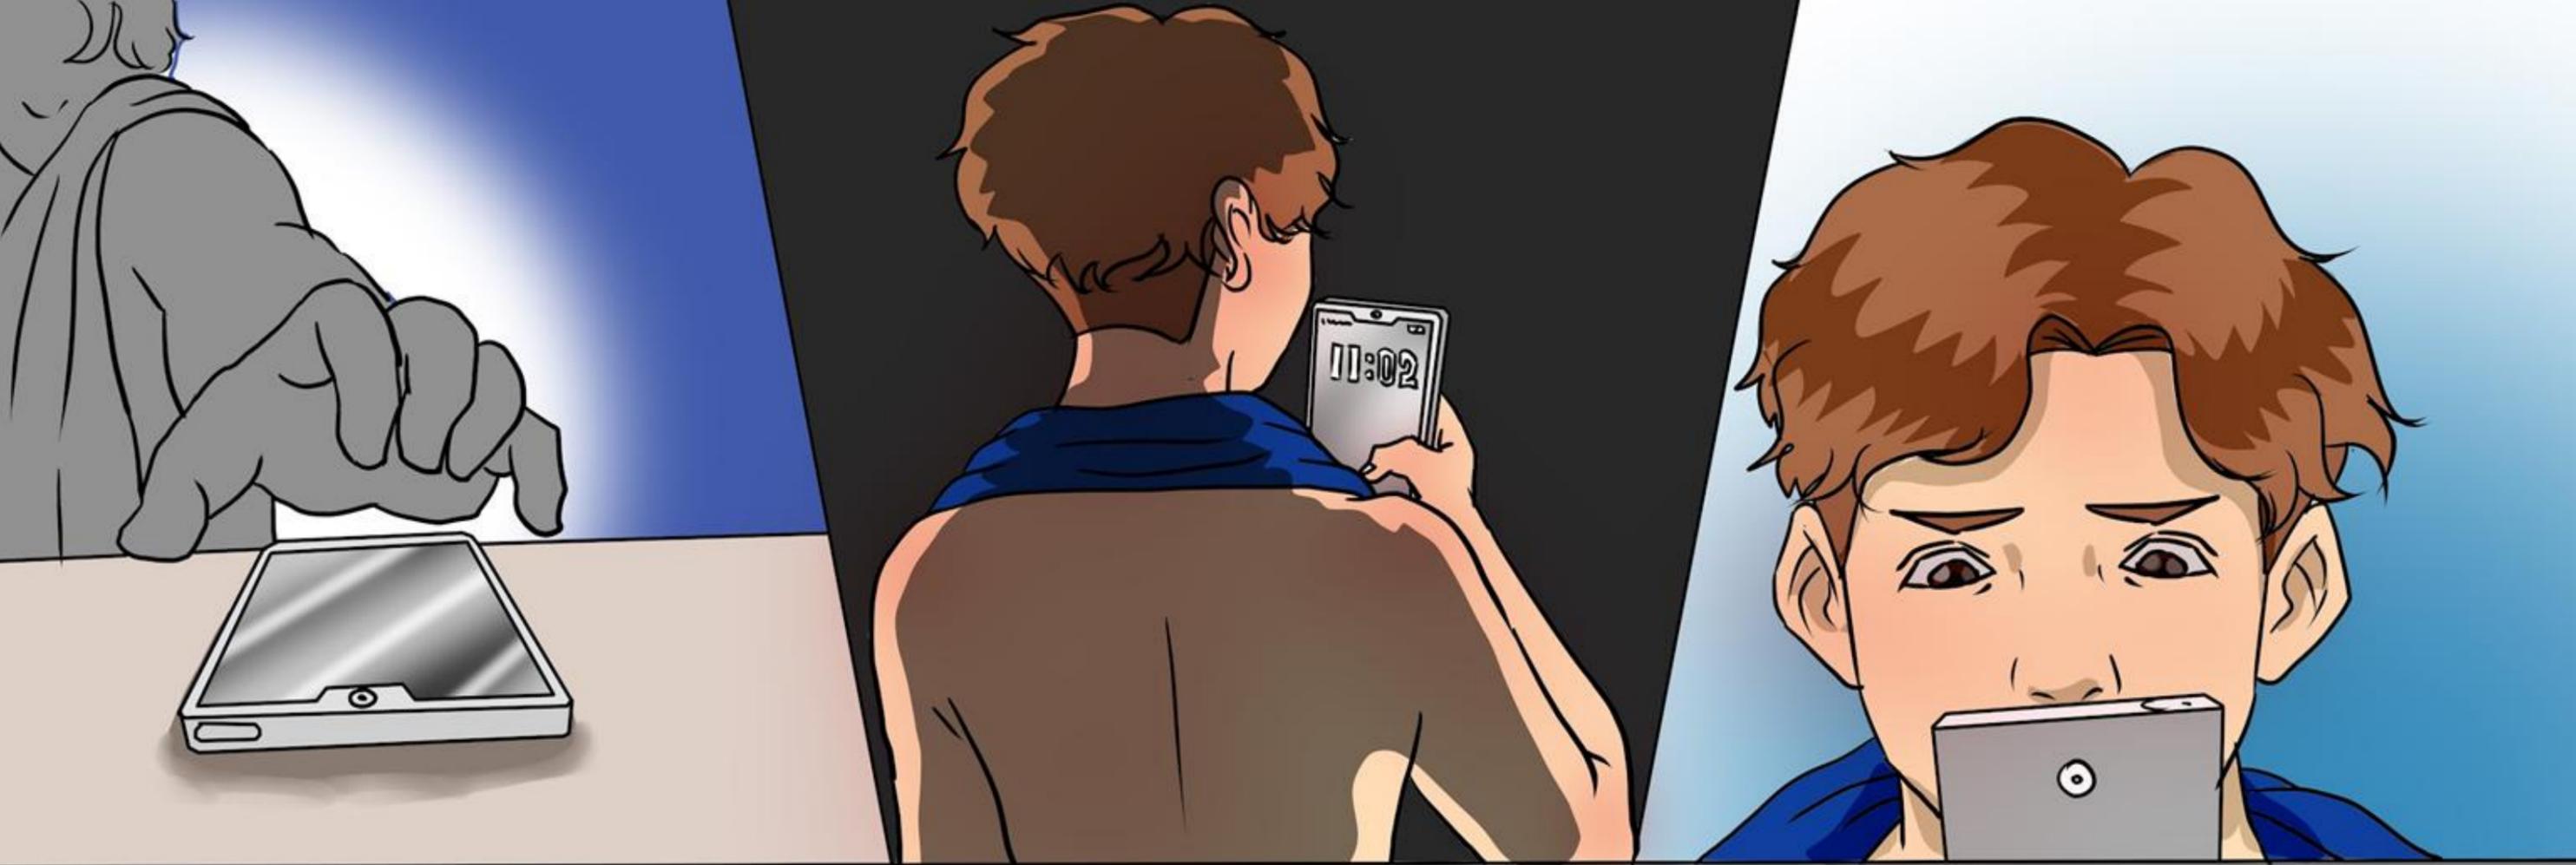

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. How can Steve help himself in a moment like this?
2. In spite of everything that's happened and been said to him, why do you think Steve is still drawn to watching porn?

SUGGESTIONS FOR FACILITATOR

Talk about the issue of porn addiction and the commitment to overcoming the issue (e.g. seeking help, calling the Child Helpline)

PICTURE 14

STORY In his struggle, he remembers his promise to his sister and the advice his brother has given him. Knowing it is not only for him but his own family, Steve resists the urge, turns off his phone and tries to get to sleep.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. Steve knows that his decision is not for him, but also for others. Who would you think of when you were in Steve's difficult situation?
2. Is there anything else that can help Steve to stop thinking about porn?

SUGGESTIONS FOR FACILITATOR

Talk about five people that they love and care for.

HOW FRUST-
-RATING...

UGHH!
I CAN'T GO ON
LIKE THIS!!!

MR MARK HAS ALWAYS BEEN KIND AND WISE.
I'M SURE I CAN TALK
TO HIM.

PICTURE 15

STORY: Steve is thinking of a person he wants to meet to talk about his struggling, then one of his teachers comes to his mind that he thinks is a safe person.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

Who would you go to, to talk about if you had a problem similar to Steve?

SUGGESTIONS FOR FACILITATOR

Talk about the characteristics of a safe person (e.g. trustworthy, caring, respectful, available, supporting)

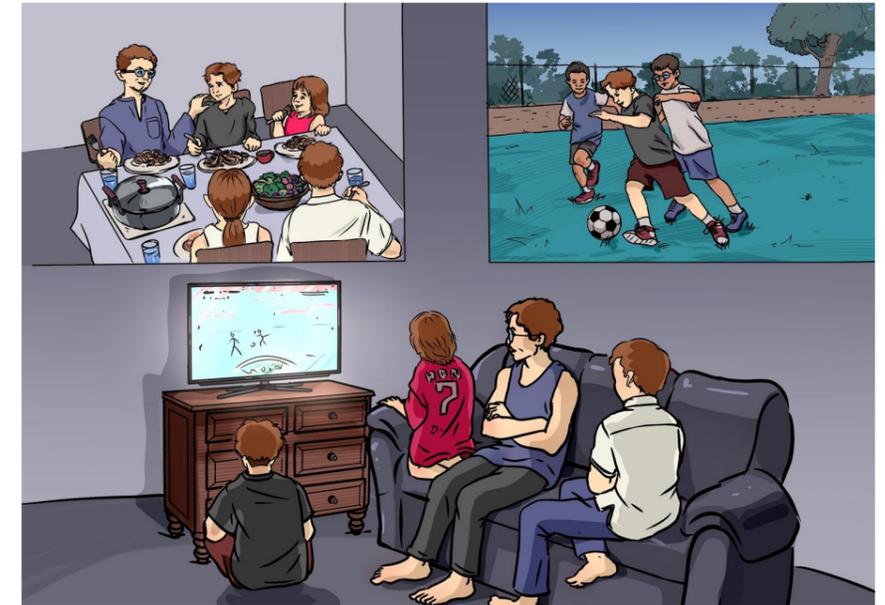

PICTURE 16

STORY

:

Though not always easy, with help Steve is able to quit porn and thrives once again at school and enjoys life with his family and friends.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. Steve is now free to enjoy his life without the distraction of porn. What are the things in life that you really enjoy?
2. What is your dream and what steps are you making towards it? What help do you need in making those steps?

SUGGESTIONS FOR FACILITATOR

Encourage children to try to achieve their dream for their future (e.g. asking them to draw about what they want to do in the future)

PICTURE 17

STORY

:

Steve is also able to help other boys be strong and not watch porn because of his experience and the freedom he now enjoys.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. Steve's struggles can now be used for a good purpose in helping others. What do you think he will say to the boys?
2. What is the most important lesson you've learnt from Steve's story?

SUGGESTIONS FOR FACILITATOR

Talk about the importance of helping your friends when they are struggling with their problem.

Key Messages

- 1. I choose to recognize that porn is harmful and to avoid or quit porn.
- 1. I choose to encourage and support my friends to do the same.
- 1. I choose to use my time and my money wisely.
- 1. I choose to learn about sex in a healthy way.
- 1. I choose a better future for myself and my friends.